

Theme: God has compassion for those who suffer and are often treated as outcasts by society, and His people must labor to serve as our Father calls.

I. Messiah of the Outcast

- A. Theme: Jesus the Messiah was anointed with God's Spirit to proclaim the Good News to outcasts.
- B. Text: Luke 4:14-21
- C. Reading: Isaiah 61:1-7

II. God's Heart for Children on the Brink

- A. Theme: As those who have been cared for and adopted by God, believers are called to display God's love to children living on the edges of society and the brink of disaster.
- B. Text: James 1:26-27
- C. Reading: Deuteronomy 10:14-22

III. God's Heart for Crisis Pregnancies

- A. Theme: God has a heart of compassion towards crisis pregnancies, both for the unborn child and the woman.
- B. Text: Proverbs 24:11-12
- C. Reading: Joel 2:23-27